Travel Trends

- Nature and adventure tourism are the fastest growing segments of the tourism industry.
  - The Ag Spin: California’s and Sonoma County ranches and farms offer unique blends of nature, tradition and outdoor adventure in a close-to-home setting.
Travel Trends

- There is an increased demand for multiple-activity trips.

  - The Ag Spin: Partner with other regional tourism providers to offer multiple activities, from bird watching and horseback riding to wine tasting and milking a cow or eating artisan goat cheese.
Travel Trends

- Long, extended vacations have been replaced by short, intensely active vacations.
  - Ag Spin 1: Key target markets generally within 2-3 hour drive time, making short, extended weekends and multiple trips possible.
  - Ag Spin 2: Most ranches and farms located near other outdoor recreation amenities and businesses.
Generalist vs. Enthusiast

- Interested in many activities
- Beginning knowledge but interested in learning
- More interested in guided experience
- Large audience
- Moderate travel expenditures

- Devoted to one activity
- Expert knowledge
- Self-guided
- Small Audience
- High travel expenditures
  - Mainly transportation
Who’s Watching What?

- One in three Americans (16 & older) participate
- 71 million in US, 6.2 million in California
- 4x greater attendance than all NFL games in 2006
- Contributes $45.7 billion to local economies
- Includes scenery, plants, wildlife, birds, & fish

Linking consumer experiences

How can you co-market the bounty of the county and beyond?
A few of our many assets...

- Many promotional alliances
- Diversified economy
- 13 farmers’ markets
- Edible festivals and events
- 300 wineries, many with gardens
- 187 organic farms growing 130 specialty products
- 27 artisan cheese companies in cheese shed
- $653 million ag production value: winegrapes, milk, livestock & poultry, nursery, vegetable, tree crops
- 100,000 acres of open space and conservation easements
- Direct farm sales from $29 to $44 million in past 5 yrs
Constraints

- Permitting / Development code / Zoning issues
- Government and private sector support
- Duplication of effort
- Liability and insurance costs
- Transportation and traffic on rural roads
